Dear Colleague:

We are pleased to announce the call for abstracts for the 2006 National Rural Women’s Health Conference. We are soliciting a broad spectrum of research papers, posters, and best practices presentations that address the conference themes from a variety of perspectives. Complete information about the abstract format, deadlines, content, and review criteria can be found at the conference website*: www.hmc.psu.edu/ce/RWH2006

We encourage you to consider submitting an abstract describing your research and work.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Corbin, Ph.D.
Associate Director, Penn State Cooperative Extension
Statewide Program Leader, Children, Youth, and Families

Lisa Davis, M.H.A.
Director, Pennsylvania Office of Rural Health
College of Health and Human Development, Penn State Outreach, and Penn State Cooperative Extension

Luanne Thorndyke, M.D.
Associate Dean for Professional Development
Penn State College of Medicine

Fred Vondracek, Ph.D.
Interim Dean
Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies and Outreach
Professor of Human Development
College of Health and Human Development
Penn State

* If you are unable to access the Internet and would like a hard copy of the call for papers and instructions for submitting a paper version of your abstract, please call the Penn State College of Medicine Continuing Education office at 717-531-6483.

This conference is funded by the National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH).

To submit an abstract, please visit our website at www.hmc.psu.edu/ce/RWH2006
Call for Abstracts

2006 National Rural Women’s Health Conference
Expanding the Agenda for Rural Mental Health Services Research: Focus on the Rural Woman
November 16–18, 2006
San Antonio, Texas

To submit an abstract, visit: www.hmc.psu.edu/ce/RWH2006